Bluegrass Festival !

Proving that Bluegrass Music will always survive as long as it doesn't get too popular, this is the 12th annual "Laughing Waters" Bluegrass Festival! Bluegrass, for those of you just making your first visit from the planet iPod III, usually involves certain acoustic instruments (banjo, fiddle, mandolin, guitar and upright "doghouse" bass) and two or three part "close" harmony singing. From the start, Bluegrass has been a mixture of rural and city, country, folk, swing, blues and what-have-you. It goes through spells of fancy to raw and back again. Maybe that's why it's survived so well.

In the Twin Cities area, you can hear bluegrass regularly on Friday and Saturday nights at Dulono's Pizza (see their ad in this program). On Saturday mornings, tune in to KBEM's "Bluegrass Saturday Morning" show (88.5 FM). Also check out MBOTMA, the Minnesota Bluegrass and Old-Time Music Association.

This year, through the generosity of Jim Whitney, we are able to feature internationally-known Laurie Lewis as our headliner. Thank you, Jim!

Tom Rozum, Laurie Lewis, Jim Whitney

Don't be shy about talking to the band members. We're "just folks" and are glad you like what we do. Bluegrass is just about the only music where most of the audience plays too. That helps to keep our hats from getting too small for our heads!

The High 48s

Since forming in 2006, The High 48s have grabbed the attention of festival audiences in the Upper Midwest and beyond, released two critically acclaimed CDs and won first place in the 2008 RockyGrass Band Competition.

The High 48s play bluegrass in the traditional style, with close three-part harmonies sung around a single microphone. But they don't draw their material exclusively from bluegrass's "first generation," artists like Bill Monroe, Flatt and Scruggs, and Jimmy Martin. The High 48s focus instead on writing material that combines the soul and drive of first-generation bluegrass with the harder-edged sound of alternative country and roots rock.

The Middle Spunk Creek Boys

The Middle Spunk Creek Boys are now in their 42nd year, having begun their unbroken performing career on the West Bank in Minneapolis in 1968.

Today's Middle Spunk Creek Boys are: Alan Jespersen (guitar, and the only original member from 1968), Bruce Jaeger (mandolin, fiddle), Jim Tordoff (banjo), Ken Sherman (fiddle), and, only the second non-boy Boy in the 40 year history of the band, Janine Kemmer (bass).

In April 2007 the Middle Spunk Creek Boys were inducted into The Minnesota Rock and Country Hall of Fame.

The members of the Middle Spunk Creek Boys are the organizers of the Laughing Waters Bluegrass Festival.

Sawtooth

The Sawtooth Bluegrass Band is the Moravec Brothers from Rochester, MN — Ethan on bass & harmony vocals and Jesse on mandolin & lead vocals, and also the Birtzer brothers from Rosemount, MN — Clint on guitar & lead vocals, Luke on fiddle & harmony vocals, and Shane Birtzer, the band's emcee, on banjo. Tight vocal harmonies and precision picking are getting them recognized. The band has been hired to perform in Branson, MO at Silver Dollar City for the Bluegrass & BBQ Festival two years in a row and has taken 1st place in the 2008 MBOTMA Race for a Place Band Contest. Clint placed 2nd overall in the 2007 and 2008 MN guitar flatpicking championships while Jesse and Clint placed 2nd in the 2008 MN duet championships.

Laurie Lewis and The Right Hands

We are proud to have Laurie Lewis and her band as part of the Laughing Waters Festival this year.

Since forming a musical partnership in 1986, Laurie Lewis and Tom Rozum have recorded 12 albums and performed around the globe. These Grammy-nominated artists (for their 1995 album The Oak and the Laurel) are widely regarded as among the leading lights of modern bluegrass and are highly-prized by their peers as sidemen and producers.

International Bluegrass Music Association's Dan Hays calls Laurie "one of the preeminent bluegrass and Americana artists of our time." Acclaimed musician Sam Bush puts it more simply, calling her "a great singer, terrific fiddle player, fine songwriter, and one very good band leader."
